was carrying on a light conversation with Perkins, when both saw Girard standing near with a gun. Perkins, he said, appeared unconcerned, or rather did not seem in the least worried. The first intimation of danger came when Girard sharply commanded: "Get down on your knees, Perkins, and pray, as I um going to kill you." Perkins stood in his tracks, and when Girard told Knight not to be alarmed. Girard told Knight not to be alarmed, that he would not harm him, he turned to run, but before he could get started was shot. Either of the woulds would have proved fatal, but Girard, not sat-isfied, tried to beat the younger man's brains out with the heavy stock of the Dr. Rhodes, who was summor The murdered man was a farm hand. He is survived by his mother. Mrs. George Childrey, and has several relatives residing in this city. He was a nephew of John Knight, whose farm that of the Girards.

Wife Unable to Explain.

Mrs. Kate Girard was unable to throw any light on the tragedy, but described her husband's death, which described her husband's death, which occurred before her eyes. She had heard of the guarrel between the youngmen, but emphatically stat d that there was no foundation to the report that Perkins had insulted one of her three daughters. She did not know what Oscar and Ferkins had fallen out about. Since purchasing the Archer place. Girard had made considerable improvements and was considered an up-to-date farmer. He was well pleased with the country, but his oldest boy was not and had several times decided to return to Michigan. Girard thought by giving him fifty acres for his own, he would be satisfied to stay.

Girard is survived by his wife, three daughters and five sons, all of whom, with the exception of John, who left yesterday, live on the Varina farm. No arrangements for the funeral will be made until after Coroner Bright gives a burial permit.

The Archer plantation was the centro the pattleneld of Fort Harrison, here a sharp engagement was fought rives a burial permit.

MAY DELAY ACTION

of the regional reserves.

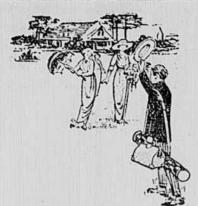

Wade Thinks It Mistake.

Pestus J. Wade, of St. Louis, who resumed this morning, emphasized his belief that it would be a mistake to put the credit of the government behind the currency issues. He urged that the banks continue to issue the circulating medium. "The time easily may come," said he, "when the nation's credit will need all the strength it can command for emergencies."

Joseph Chapman, of Minneapolis, spoke in opposition to the provision requiring regional banks to rediscent the paper of another bank. This idea, paper of another bank. This idea,

t bankers on the Federal Reserve to make the run back on No. 95. oard and discussed the provision re-uiring banks to accept the checks of ther banks at the run back on No. 95. "Gus replied, 'For God's sake, n

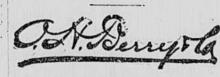

Here are week-end specials that will give you the strong end of the bargain.

the white trousers makes practically another suit, and it's a com-

Final offering of Berry $4 Oxfords at $2.85.

Scarfs, Socks, Shirts, Summer Underwear, Pajamas-in a final sale!

would violate the spirit and purpose of the Democratic caucus. Ragsdale says that Leader Underwood assured him that his amendment was no violation of the fundamentals of the bill.

Senator Reed, "I shall begin to think it the worst bill ever drawn."

Questions by Senator Pemerene indicated his belief that the banks ought to be compelled to occome members of the regional reserves.

Wade Thinks It Mistake.

Festus J. Wade, of St. Louis, who resumed this morning, emphasized his belief that it would be a mistake to put the wredit of the government best of the government best of the provincial authorities at Quebec made evident to-day at the provincial authorities at Quebec made evident to-day at the provincial authorities at Quebec made evident to-day at the first session of the beard of inquiry, has caused the noted prisoner's house of hope to completely collapse.

"We have made a good fight, and we have lost." said W. L. Shurtleff. Thaw's counsel of record to-night. "It looks as though Thaw will be over the border to-morrow evening."

Charles D. White and Colonel Harry Fraser, of counsel for Thaw, were equally pessimistic. They both said there is absolutely no hope of staving off deportation for much more than twenty-four hours.

The town of Bell Haven is wiped practically off the map. In Aurora fifthere is absolutely no hope of staving off deportation for much more than twenty-four hours.

crying like a child. He said he made his run from Stamford, Conn., on No. I believe I have convinced the members of the board both of my sanity ations to compel men to lend money his run from Stamford, Conn., on No. ether they did not want to, had failed. So at 1:37 A. M., and after leaving his are substitutional if this provision were train home when the yardmaster came these conditions, unless tremendous to the assistance of the schooner Annie these conditions, unless tremendous to the assistance of the schooner Annie these conditions, unless tremendous to the assistance of the schooner Annie these conditions, unless tremendous to the assistance of the schooner Annie the school of to him and said, Miller, you will have outside pressure is brought to bear.

"Gus replied, 'For God's sake, man, ties at Ottawa, offered these two altring almost dead. Can't you get some-body else?"

Of the interior and the rederal authorities at Ottawa, offered these two alternatives to Thaw's counsel:

First If Thaw is found guilty of VIRGINIA FIRE & MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY OF RICHMOND, VA. Eightreirst Annual Statement, January 1,1913. CAPITAL $ 250,000,00 SURPLUS 620,547,00 ASSETS...... 1,641,607.00 WM. H. PALMER. PRESIDENT. E. B. ADDISON, VICE - PRESIDENT.

1,900 TONS OF

SUMAC WANTED

W. H. ME CARTHY, SECRETARY

cured Black Sumac.

Gather only the leaves and the one-year's growth; let it wither in the sun; then dry in the shade under cover. Sacks furnished free when ready to ship. Write to-day for prices

ROBERT T. KNOX & BRO. Box 94, Milford, Caroline County, Va.

THAW'S LAWYERS

as Mr. —— at the trial of Thaw for and Postal wires are down, and it may murder would be revealed. It is said be several days before lines can be that this threat is one of the trump restored. And going against him to-day it certainly was. A strategical move that his lawyers had saved until the last moment failed of result, when Judge Hutchinson was besought by Attorney T. K. Laffamme at Sherbrooke to grant a writ of problition. This would have A $20 Blue Serge Suit, with a pair of $7.50 White Serge Trousers, for $17.55. The coat with the white trousers makes practi-

Loses Main Contention. A few hours later the immigration court here decided against Thaw in one of his main contentions at the hearing. He had declared that he came A few hours later the immigration court here decided against Thaw in one of his main contentions at the hearing. He had declared that he came into Canada as a tourist. Immigration officers alleged that he had entered the country by stealth. Their contention was upheld, and Thaw's was overthrown.

Thereupon the court began questionand and stock gone. The town of steel a height of five to six feet. A large number of the colored people had to leave their houses and sleep in the churches, as their houses and sleep in the churches, as their houses are the churches, as their houses are the churches, as their houses are the churches, as their houses and sleep in the churches, as their houses and sleep in the churches, as their houses are the churches, Thereupon the court began questioning Thaw as to his past life and the history of his family. His lawyers de-manded that they be allowed to call alienists, and this was taken under adto-morrow morning.

House of Hope Collapses.

Thaw's fight to escape deportation has apparently been lost. The coalition of the immigration officials with the provincial authorities at Quebe the provincial authorities at Quebe the damage at those places was not the damage at those places are not the damage at those places was not the damage at those places are not the damage at those places was not the damage at those places are not the damage at the d House of Hope Collapses.

Thaw Retains Confidence. is Thaw himself. To-day he spent al-most six hours on the stand and subis Thaw himself. To-day he spent almost six hours on the stand and submitted to searching vross-examination of the great damage, and it will be severable to the standard of the great damage, and it will be severable to the standard of the great damage. nitted to searching vross-examination of the serior of the serior damage can be arrived at, as the telephone and smiling. he was cool and smiling.

"I shall go on the stand again to-orrow," he said. "I have answered

"Gus replied. For God's Sare, main the banks to accept the checks of ther banks at par. Sixty per cent of the banks were country concerns, if the banks at par. Sixty per cent of the banks at part of the banks at par. Sixty per cent of the banks at part of the b

Frantic Efforts Unavailing.

W. K. McKeown, K. C. another of haw's counsel, made frantic efforts o-day to secure a writ of prohibition another habeas corpus writ from a sperior Court justice. Both justices, utchinson and Globensky, refused r McKeown's requests.

"The case is out of our hands," said the judges in effect. The crown has decided that Thaw shall not remain in Canada, and it is impossible for us to overrule this decision. -day's session of the immigration board of inquiry was held in the local immigration quarters in the Grand Trunk Railway station in Coaticook, About the picturesque little building were gathered a motley array of auto-mobiles and rigs that had been pressed nto service by newspaper representadetectives and agents. Loafing around the station platform while the hearing was going on up state, were half a dozen private de cectives in the employ, it is said, of the Thaw family. They are a part of a force that lies in wait across the Vermont border, and whose avowed purpose is to prevent Thaw being kid-nappes by the New York authorities and rushed back to Matteawan withallowed a breathing spell these dispatches yester-

n Lanyon had numerous waiting at Norton's Mills, crome's hope to speed Thaw through to Matteawan withassertion of M. Marechal, when f the scheme. "If we decide to it Thaw to Vermont, we shall see a turned over to Vermont aules, and that he is locked in fail Any man who attempts to interfere with us will be shot down cards that Mrs. Thaw has been holding back for use at any time that she saw the battle going against her son.

OCRACOKE ISLAND WAVE-SWEPT; NO PERSON ESCAPES Twenty Men, Two Women and George M. Cohan, Daughter and

One young man lost the savings of a lifetime. He had secreted in his home between $4,000 and $5,000, which was washed away by the high water was washed away by the high water.
Several persons have been reported drowned, but these rumors cannot be verified. All over the city trees are approach, houses unroofed, wires down and water standing. Washington's handsome new opera house is practically ruined, as the entire end is caved in, entailing a loss of $16,000.

For twenty-four hours the fire department has been engaged in number of the control of partment has been engaged in pump-ing out cellars in business sections. In some of the buildings the water reach-ed a height of five to six feet. A large and stock gone. The town of Belto-morrow morning.

It is probable that a decision will be handed down to-morrow as to whether the prisoner shall be deported, unless the privilege of calling alienists is granted or Attorney Laflame succeeds in finding a judge to grant the writ of prohibition.

Vandener Ratroad, the damage was heavy. S. F. McCotter & Bro. estimate their loss between $10,000 and $50,000. Over 200 hors and cattle are drowned and lying dead in the streets. From every section the story of damage increases, and it will be several days before an estimate can be rightfully placed.

ton and Vandemere Railroad, the dam-Thaw Retains Confidence.

The only man who seems confident of victory before the board of inquiry hogs were drowned, and are lying in Outside pressure is brought to bear."

This afternoon C. K. Marechal, K. C., special representative of the Minister mond Shoals, with her rudder broken and her fore topmast and jibboom gone
Two members of the schooner's crew have been seriously injured.

are foot forms-Found in no other line.

SOLD IN RICHMOND BY POWELL BROS. 1537-41 East Main Street

UNION 3 350 4 FOR MADE 3

CARREST SALES SALE

Are You Going Away?

Lanyon had numerous diting at Norton's Mills.

Mes hope to speed Thaw as to Matteawan with nalt except for gasolene be no railroading of to Matteawan," was the control of the Matteawan," was the control of the Matteawan," was the control of the Matteawan, was the control of the Matteawan with the control of the control o

Phone Monroe r, or call at the Circulation Department of The Times-Dispatch. Sun rises....5:49 Sun rises....5:44

SAVED BY HEROISM YANKEE DOODLE IS OF LIFE-SAVERS

Two Children Rescued From Wrecked Schooner.

Norfolk, Va., September 4.—Life savers of Hatteras, Ocracoke and Durant's Neck Stations established a new record for bravery when they rescued twenty men, two women and two children from the state of the savers o dren from the six masted schooner Geo. W. Wells, which went ashore yes-terday, three miles north of Hatteras Inlet during the terrific storm which swept the Virginia and North Caro-lina coasts. The schooner, which was lina coasts. The schooner, which was one of the largest afloat, is a total

The vessel, which was bound from The vessel, which was bound from New York to Ferandina, light, was driven ashore at 11:30 o'clock yester-day afternoon. She had been stripped of most of her sail before she struck the beach, and when discovered by life savers, the men and women were clinging to what remained of the ves-clinging to what remained of the sel's rigging.

The wind was blowing seventy miles an hour, and the rain fell in torrents.

The mist was so heavy that the life savers could hardly distinguish the believes schooler, fast going to pieces helpless schooner, fast going to pieces under the terrific beating of the heavy lienists, and this was taken under ad-isement, but the hearing went on. At 30 the hearing adjourned until 9:15 were, terminus of the Washington and Vandemere Railroad, the damage was high seas. The life sayers from Duhigh seas. The life savers from Durant Station were the first to get off, and they were soon joined by eight men from the Ocracoke Station. little boats were half filled with water when they reached the stranded ves-sel, and two men from the Ocracoke Station were suffering with sore backs, es was not most thrilling circumstances. With The report the wind blowing a hurricane and to-night to obtain the names of those rescued. They are being cared for at to-night of a new play.

They were traveling at a good rate to the city to attend a rescued. They are being cared for at to-night of a new play.

They were traveling at a good rate to the city to attend a rescued. the Ocracoke and Durant stations, and They were traveling at a good rate will probably come to Norfolk to- along the turnpike when their auto-

LOSS OF $500,000

P. M.
Mean temperature.
Normal temperature.
Excess in temperature
Excess in temperature since March Local Observation 8 P. M. Yesterday.

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

(At 8 P. M. Eastern Standard Time.)
Place. Ther. H. T. L. T. Weather.
Asheville 66 68 64 P. cloudy
Atlanta 72 84 72 Cloudy
Atlanta 72 84 72 Cloudy
Calgary 66 76 64 P. cloudy
Charleston 58 64 58 Rain
Chicago 72 72 68 Clear
Chicago 74 82 58 Cloudy
Hatteras 76 84 P. cloudy
Montgomery 80 84 70 Cloudy
Montgomery 80 84 70 Cloudy
Montgomery 80 84 70 Cloudy
New Orleans 84 90 80 Cloudy
New Orleans 84 90 80 Cloudy
New Orleans 84 90 80 Cloudy
New York 74 82 74 Clear
Norfolk 74 82 74 Clear
Oklahoma 90 95 72 Clear
Clear
Oklahoma 90 95 72 Clear

MINIATURE ALMANAC. September 5, 19 HIGH TIDE

Party Hurt in an Auto Smash-Up.

WERE AVOIDING NEW HAVEN

Traveling by Motor Instead of the Hoodoo Road, They Came to Grief.

from the Hartford Hospital in the

In reply to many inquiries, and in In reply to many inquiries, and in view of the great mass of work involved in settling up the affairs of the Commonwealth Bank, Inc., we respectfully ask that all persons in interest will promptly comply with and take notice of the following requests and information, and thus assist us in realizing the best results for all constitutions.

In reply to many inquiries, and in taken to Crewe for burial. Mrs. Guy was the widow of Benjamin Guy.

Newton J. Wagner, September 4.—
Newton J. Wagner, seventy-five years old, a well-known farmer, is dead at Poort Republic. He had been an invalid for nine years. He leaves five children.

1. Bring all pass books to No. 12 North Ninth Street at once, and leave them to be written up, and we will return them after the American Audit Company has completed its examina-tion and statement of the affairs of the bank.

2. We cannot pay anything to the done until the audit is completed. 5. All persons indebted to the bank or its branches are requested to make prompt payment to us at the main office of the bank, No. 12 North Ninth Street. 6. All depositors are urgently quested to file with the receivers their present correct address, and to notify them of any subsequent change. JAMES W. GORDON. JOHN B. LIGHTFOOT, JR.,

Morning....8:15 September 5,

Do You Sing?

How often it is a good vocalist must refrain from singing because he has no accompanist.

But With The GENUINE NNER-PLAYER PIANO

you can accompany yourself, executing with wonderful expression any piece of music desired. Come in and demonstrate it for

For sale only at

The Portey Company

"The House That Made Richmond Musical" Wholesale and Retail Distributors

the home of her sister, Mrs. A. B. Ferguson, in Bon Air, at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, Mrs. Flippen had been ill for several months. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Ferguson, of Bon Air, and two small children. The funeral took place in Bon Air yesterday afternoon, and the interment was made in Powhatan County.

having been thrown off their feet by high seas before they succeeded in launching their boats.

The rescue was effected under the most thrilling circumstances. With the wind blowing a hurricane and waves beating all over the schooner, those on board were half buried under the sea, while being taken from the rigging of the doomed craft by lite savers.

One of the children, just fifteen months old, was tied to its mother with a rope, and both mother and child were brought to safety in the arms of one of the life savers.

The government wires along the coast are down and it was impossible to-night to obtain the names of those rescued. They are being cared for at the late two ways to the city to attend a rehearsal the Ocracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and will accelerate the properties of the coracoke and Durant stations, and the two actors were on their way to the city to attend a rehearsal to inght of a new play.

They were traveling at a good rate with a good rate with a rope, and both mother and the two actors were on their way to the city to attend a rehearsal to inght of a new play.

They were traveling at a good rate with a general form. Lynchburg, Va., September 4.—Miss Mary Josephine Kelly.

Isynchurg, Va., September 4.—Lynchburg, Va., September 4.—Itynchburg, Va., September 4.—Miss Mary Josephine Kelly.

Isynchurg, Va., September 4.—Itynchburg, Va., September 4.—Itynchburg vow o'clock at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Lynchburg, Va. Miss Mary Josephine Kelly.

the Ocracoke and Durant stations, and will probably come to Norfolk tomorrow.

An unknown schooner with only one mast standing and no signs of life on board is ashore three miles north of Ocracoke. The revenue cutter Seminole has gone to her assistance. Two miles further south an oil steamer, flying the British flag, is also ashore. Life savers have been unable to learn her name, but are making strenuous efforts to reach her.

They were traveling at a good rate along the turnpike when their automobile was thrown from the rate automobile was thrown from the road and against a telegraph pole.

Tries to Save Baughter.

As the machine crashed into the pole. Cohan attempted to grab his little girl, who was seated at his side to the tonneau, and toss her to one side. He failed in his effort, however, and all four were thrown out by the smash. A telephone call brought aid from the Hartford Hospital in the shape of two ambulances physicians.

CAUSED BY STORM

Shape of two ambulances, physicians and nurses, and all four members of the party were taken to the hospital after "first aid" remedies had been applied at the scene of the accident.

The physicians' first examination at the hospital showed that Cohan's arm had been dislocated, and indicated that the little girl's skull probably had been fractured.

River at Newbern, Ten Feet Above High Water Mark, Causes Great Damage.

Newbern, N. C. Sentember 4.—Andrew Jackson Moore, about eighty died several days ago at his home in a secluded section, five miles from this place. He leaves a widow and one son, Andrew Jackson Moore, Jr. He was a native of this county. At the openfractured.

In addition to the injured arm, which was dislocated at the shoulder. Cohan suffered cuts on his forehead end face and severe bruises on his body and limbs.

Eddings of two ambulances, physicians and nurses, and all four members of the party were taken to the hospital after "first aid" remedies had been applied at the secone of the accident.

The physicians' first examination at the hospital showed that Cohan's arm had been dislocated that the little girl's skull probably had been fractured.

In addition to the injured arm, which was dislocated at the shoulder. Cohan suffered cuts on his forehead end face and severe bruises on his body and limbs.

Eddings of two ambulances, physicians and nurses, and all four members of the park of age. A Confederate veteran, died several days ago at his home in a sectuded section, five miles from this place. He leaves a widow and one son, Andrew Jackson Moore, Jr. He was a native of the county. At the open-induced that the little girl's skull probably had been fractured.

In addition to the injured arm, which was dislocated at the shoulder. Cohan suffered cuts on his forehead end face and severe bruises on his body and limbs.

Mrs. Frances Stanley Guy.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Lynchburg. Va. September 4.—Mrs.
Frances Stanley Guy, aged forty-nine years, a native of Abingdon, who had lived here many years, died yesterday at 301 Fifth Street. Her body will ho taken to Crewe for burial. Mrs. Guy was the widow of Benjamin Guy.

DEATHS

RICHARDSON.—Died. at St. Elizabeth Hospital, September 4, at 6 A. M. MISS JOSIE MAY RICHARDSON, aged twenty-one, beloved daughter of Herbert E. 2.—H. Bright Richardson. She leaves, besides her parents, two brothers and two sisters—Herbert E., Jr., Earl. Lelia and Ruth. Funeral from residence, 1807 Grove Avenue, SATURDAY, September 6, at 4 P. M. Interment will take place in Riverview.

FLIPPEN.—Died, at the home of A. R. Ferguson, in Bon Air, at 3 o'clock Thursday morning, September 4, MRS, MARY D. FLIPPEN, widow of Leroy Flippen, of Powhatan County.

THOMPSON.—Died, at Grace Hospital, 3 o'clock Wednesday morning, September 3, N. W. THOMPSON, aged fifty-six years, of 305 Louisiana Street. Mr. Thompson had been connected with Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad for twenty-five years. He is survived by wife and four children—James L., George E., Warren C. and N. W., Jr.
Funeral from Denny Street Methodist Church, 3 o'clock FRIDAY AFTERNOON, September 5.

Grateful Acknowledgment.

We take this method of expressing our appreciation for the very great kindness and sympathy extended to us in our sad bereavement in the death of our dear one, Charles A. Mottley. The many, many floral tributes and the attendance of so many friends, who came through the stormy weather to be with us and help us about the Jast sad rites, assured us of the love his friends in Richmond and elsewhere had for him.

Sincerely and gratefully,

MRS. ANNA MOTTLEY AND FAMILY,

R. F. D. No. 3, Burkeville, Va.

Receivers.